::SHILLONG::

PRESS RELEASE

A Criminal Gang which were active in the City, couple of years back has re-surfaced. Their modus operandi is to target people leaving out from banks after withdrawing money. They would throw some irritants/dirt on the person while another member of the gang would tell the target that something is sticking on his clothes. When the person is busy cleaning, another person would snatch away the bag containing the money. Another method adopted by them is to drop money on the ground, tell the would be victim that his money has dropped. When he is busy collecting the dropped money another person would snatch away the money bag.

This is an advisory from the District Police to public especially those leaving from bank not to let go their money bag if anyone tries to distract them.

This is issued in public interest.
