PRESS RELEASE

ATM FRAUD CASES

Inspite of repeated warnings to public not to divulge their ATM details to any person calling on their mobile phone, still a number of civilians are falling prey to it and losing their money through online shopping. Such disguised callers belonged to some organized gangs who are trying to lure people by pretending to be SBI employees. Public are requested to strictly practice the safety and security features of ATM usage circulated and displayed by the Banks regularly. The Bank account holders should also register their mobile number to get SMS alerts. If any transactions is done on their ATM card illegally, they should bring immediately to the notice of the concerned Bank and Police of such fraudulent transactions.
